Gillogly Again Wins M Club Cup

Tong Teams To Compete For Titles

Intersorority, Interfrat Song Contests to Start At 8 o'Clock

Finals of the intersorority and intersorority song contest, punctuated with pictures of campus activities and a full-length show, will begin at 8 o'clock tonight at the Wilma theater, John Kujich, Great Falls, Traditions board chairman, said yesterday.

Intersorority finalists are Kappa Alpha Theta, Alpha Chi Omega and Delta Delta Delta, and interfraternity preliminary winners are Sigma Nu, Phi Delta Theta and Phi Sigma Kappa.

Sorority Warblers

Members of the Kappa Alpha Theta quartet are Sue Pigot, Roundup; Dorothy Lloyd, Butte; Doris Morley, Livingston; Helen Lundeen, Poplar, and Aline Mosby, Missoula, accompanist.

Dorothy Borcharding, Moore; Grace Wrigley, Deer Lodge; Ruth Plank, Chester, and Laurence Larson, Saco, with Mary Louise Davis, Great Falls, at the piano, comprise the Alpha Chi Omega group. Delta Delta Delta singers are Ruth Harrison, Deer Lodge; Mildred McIntyre, Worden; Ethel-Claire Kuenning, Missoula, and Pauline Schneider, Sheridan. Josephine Bugli, Missoula, will accompany.

Fraternity Singers

Sigma Nu singers are Howard and Marshall Small, Missoula, and Glen Marcus and Royal Brown, Valier. Members of the Phi Delta Theta quartet are Dean Galles, Billings; Herb Jillson and Robert Staffanson, Deer Lodge, and Quentin Johnson, Harlowton.

Phi Sigma Kappa members are James McGray, Garrison, N. D.; Kenneth Obrecht, Cascade; Earl Dahlstrom, Missoula, and Eugene Phelan, Chinook.

Technicolor pictures of university, sorority and fraternity activities will be shown. The feature, "Thief of Bagdad," starring June Dupdez, Sabu and Conrad Veidt, will be the final event of the evening.

A skit, a take-off on the three Ritz brothers, will be staged by Jerry Anderson and Hugh Sweeney, Billings, and Mike O'Connell, Butte.

Campbell Gets Publicity Job

John Campbell, '40, has been appointed university publicity assistant to succeed Gilbert LeKander, '39, the president's office announced yesterday. LeKander recently resigned to take a position with the Associated Press in Salt Lake City.

Campbell has been university athletic publicity manager for six months, a Spokesman-Review correspondent and a reporter on the Daily Missoulian since graduation.

The Winnah!

Chuck Gillogly (foreground), White Sulphur Springs, was awarded the M club cup for the second successive year last night. President George Finlay Simmons (back, right) made the presentation while John Campbell was announcer.

Director Haydon Selects "Idiot's Delight" Cast

Michael O'Connell Gets Leading Man's Role; Judith Hurley Is Cast as Russian Countess; Small Will Be Munitions Maker

Michael O'Connell, Butte, and Judith Hurley, Lewistown, will play the leading roles in "Idiot's Delight," spring quarter major production to be presented April 3 and 4, Director Lar-ae Haydon announced last night. The play is set in a resort hotel in the Italian Alps during the outbreak of a war in Europe.

O'Connell is cast as Harry Van, an American showman touring Europe, the role played by Clark Gable in the movie version of the play, and Miss Hurley will portray Irene, the "Russian" countess, Norma Shearer's part in the movie. Marshall Small, Missoula, is cast as Achille Weber, the munitions maker whom Edward Arnold portrayed.

English Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Cherry, an English couple honeymooning in Italy, will be played by Bob Fleet, Edgewater, Md., and Harriette Franklin, Bozeman. Frank Masek, Great Falls, will appear as Dr. Waldersee, a famous German research scientist, and Clyde Hinton, Missoula, as Quillery, a French socialist worker. The American social manager of the hotel, Donald Navadel, will be played by Boyd Cochrell, Missoula. Joe Gans, Helena, will appear as Dumpty, the Austrian bellboy. Captain Locicero, Italian officer in charge of the frontier military station, will be played by Jack Sweet, Ronan; the Italian major by John Metcalf, Marion. Elwood Thompson, Gilman, is cast as Auguste, a waiter.

Chorus Girls

Harry Van's troupe of blonde chorus girls will consist of Dorothy Taylor, Missoula; Katherine Sire, Belt; Emmajane Gibson, Butte, and Lucille Kincade and Anna Helding, Missoula. The sixth dancer has not yet been cast.

Charles Cerovski, Danvers; Andrew Beck, Deer Lodge, and David Drum, Miles City, will appear as Italian officers. A hotel maid has not yet been cast.

NOTICE

Another of the weekly series of matinee mixers will take place at 4 o'clock in the Gold room.

White Sulphur Springs Boxer Out-punches Two Maulers Last Night

Forestry Club Gets Team Award; McFarland Receives Special Sweater; Mohland, Reagan, Ness Top Opponents

Chuck Gillogly, White Sulphur Springs, double-bout winner, won the coveted M Club trophy last night for the second successive year, stopping Don Fox, Park City, in the welter-weight class, and Bill Wood, Missoula, in the lightweight division. It is the first time in the history of the tournament in which the cup has been awarded to the same man in consecutive years. Karl Nussbacher, Missoula, won the first wrestling cup ever awarded for pinning Chuck Rigg, Havre, in the light-heavy bracket.

Sound Film To Be Shown

Motion Picture, Lecture Will Portray U. S. Coast Guard Life

Sound motion pictures and a lecture portraying life in the Coast Guard and at its academy at New London, Conn., will be presented at 4 o'clock tomorrow in the Journalism auditorium. All students are invited to attend.

The film will illustrate basic principles of our defense structure and opportunities existing to qualified students for further education at the United States Coast Guard academy leading to a commission and a career in the Coast Guard.

A competitive examination for appointment of cadets to the Coast Guard academy is to be given May 14. The examination is open to young men between the ages of 17 and 22 years. Mental requirements are, in general, those necessary for admission to engineering colleges.

HOOVER IS DRAFTED

Edward Hooper, '40, who has been recreational director at the state hospital in Warm Springs since graduation, will be inducted into the army today at Fort Missoula. Hooper was a campus visitor yesterday and will leave for Fort Lewis tomorrow.

Forestry club took team honors with 46 points. Close behind were the Independents and Sigma Nu with 43 and 38.

Billy Dugal McFarland, referee and former M club lightweight champion, was presented with an award which has been delayed 15 years for his boxing achievements while attending the university.

Gillogly Shows Good Form

Winning the trophy, which is given the battler showing the most skill, polish and sportsmanship, Gillogly showed unerring accuracy in punches and a cool head. He continually carried the fight through both bouts, fighting cleanly at all times.

Footballer Nussbacher had power to spare, handling Rigg easily throughout the match. He also entered the light-heavy boxing class, but was defeated by Bob Ness, Kalispell, in one of the best bouts of the night.

Only Knockdown

Big John Mohland, Missoula, threw fast and straight lefts to win the heavyweight boxing title in a match with Ken Drahos, Puyallup, Wash., who was substituting for his roommate, Champion Frank Nelson, Helena. The freshman footballer put Drahos in trouble in the second round after landing three heavy blows in a mixup on the ropes, knocking Drahos down.

Resembling a professional match under amateur rulings, colored Johnny Reagan, Chicago, used football tactics to advantage in gaining the edge over Jim Westwater, also of Chicago, for heavyweight grappling honors.

Ness Wins

With more good hard punches landed by both fighters than in any other bout, Bob Ness, Kalispell, (Continued on Page Four)

WORLD AND NATIONAL

By ROGER PETERSON

JONESBORO, Ga.—An Eastern Airlines transport is down with 16 aboard, including Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, 10 miles north of the Atlanta airport. It is feared several passengers are dead, and nurses and doctors are leaving for the site this morning. The airliner was due at Atlanta last night at 11:55; a few minutes before, the pilot gave his usual report. It was foggy, but other planes were landing. It is feared the ship is down in wooded territory.

LONDON—Nazi warplanes whined over, lashing London and south Wales towns in extensive raids last night as they kept apace RAF activity. British airiors criss-crossed the channel, bombing Calais and leaving Boulogne a "sheet of flames," using more planes than have been seen over the Strait of Dover since summer.

National Defense First, Says Hench

"National defense is more important than sweeping floors—much more important!" John Hench, janitor of the Natural Science building, said yesterday. "So I'm quitting the university."

Hench, who has been a janitor here since 1939, will leave Friday to take a position as foundryman with the Pacific Car and Foundry company at Renton, Wash., where he served his apprenticeship in 1936. The work will be in connection with national defense orders, Hench said.

OUR GOVERNOR, OUR LEGISLATURE AND OUR GREATER UNIVERSITY

Numbered among state governmental activities, the educational work of the state government deserves to come first, according to Ogg and Ray, authors of political science textbooks, not only because of its intrinsic importance in a democracy, but by reason of the vast number of persons directly affected by it; also because of the large sums appropriated by the legislature for educational purposes.

In his inaugural address before the legislature, Governor Sam C. Ford urged that body to divorce administration of the Greater University of Montana from politics and to eliminate the needless and extensive duplication of service now in existence.

But the matter should not end there. The real "cancer" of Montana's education system is the State Board of Education as it now exists. The present board, composed of three state officers as members ex-officio and eight appointive members has control and supervision of the university system. To quote Governor Ford; "Experience has demonstrated the utter failure of this method and in practice has resulted in a one-man board. The governor, attorney-general, and superintendent of public instruction, the ex-officio members, are necessarily so occupied with the duties of their offices that seldom are they able to give the required time to affairs of several institutions. The appointive members likewise have little opportunity to fortify their actions with adequate information."

This fact was aptly demonstrated last year when the board for the first time learned the ABC's of university administration. Why not a permanent commission with quasi-judicial and quasi-legislative powers, composed of full-time officers expected to perform the actual work of administration?

There should be no doubt in the minds of Montana's voting public that our present legislature could quite easily and effectively determine upon a course consistent with the needs of the Greater University by, as our governor said, "... reframing the law relative to the appointment of the members of the board of education and the laws under which it works so as to produce a higher degree of efficiency and supervision."—D. R. C.

MY SAY

By JERE COFFEY

In the winter of 198 B. C., Hannibal crossed the Alps with a herd of elephants; in the spring of 1588 the English navy trounced the Spanish Armada; and on March 3, 1934, the Grizzlies took four straight games from the Bobcats.

For the first time in 12 years university hoopsters performed the miracle of annexing a state title on that memorable night not so long ago when the score read: Grizzlies 36, Bobcats 33. A total of 48 battles between the two schools had been waged in the 12 years preceding this date—years in which the Grizzly growl had subsided to a grunt when only eight wins were amassed against its arch rival.

From the time that Bernie Bierman had steered the U squad to a state title in 1922, the mighty Feline had reigned for more than a decade without experiencing the need for a real warmup to smother the opposition furnished by the listless northerners. The Grizzlies, until 1934, could not even boast that they had made a single clean sweep of four straight wins throughout the period of competition which began between the schools in 1908.

Perhaps there was something significant in that victory of seven years ago. It might have had something to do with a center on the squad who was playing his last game for the Copper-Silver-Gold. The guy's name was Dahlberg.

State titles no longer seem unusual to Dahlberg. He has seen 11 victories wrested from the state college since he became casaba coach in 1937. He knows the accomplishment of four straight wins from these Bobcats in one year. He has a thought stuck in the back of his mind, perhaps, that after this week-end he will be the first MSU mentor to have caged the Bobcat for three consecutive years with 10 victories in a row.

Perhaps Dahlberg and Bierman have something in common. At any rate the Grizzly and the Gopher can both rise to the heights. No one person can see both in action, but to get a birdseye view, to coin a phrase, of the former tearing in for the kill, wander over to the courts tomorrow night.

—And don't be surprised to see a kittenish object run for the nearest and tallest tree when it hears that Grizzly roar!

Burke Thompson, Great Falls, was admitted to the Northern Pacific hospital yesterday.

How long will it take to know your university? Perhaps this sudden patriotic call that has been belabored so loudly by some of our campus shots has been an honest outgrowth of a few years of education which has shown them that there is plentiful room for some kind of reform; however, is their benevolence a veneer or are they really taking this thing seriously?

Then, with spring and campus elections just around the proverbial corner, this could and might be substantial publicity for certain interested parties. This is merely a simple deduction and can be all haywire, although it is an efficient system if it works!

Perhaps and with all due respect to certain parties, we do need to put our own dear university on the map in the right manner. We need to sell it to the citizens of our own state; the little episode that took place last year was poison—pure and unadulterated. The germs it spread were venomous and that is undoubtedly the basis of why MSU needs a complete reformation. Bolster up the student body, obey the Spurs and Bear Paws or at least respect them—they asked for it.

It seems that there always has to be a "fight" for something that is good. The two major publications, Kaimin and Sentinel, are fine examples of constant fighters for existence. This is all wrong and here's why: they are the only two tangibles that the student receives for the money he pays.

I sincerely agree with Bourke, Fischer, Deegan and Shallenberger, but not with Howard Stevens, that something is lacking. Talking is not strong enough. It is going to take definite action and in the right direction—not insulting the men and women on the campus. They are paying customers!

Satisfaction comes out of being happy and pleased. Surely our mortality rate per quarter of students who drop out because of dissatisfaction exemplifies some consideration. Last fall a goodly amount of men and women went out of the state to attend other colleges. This is not only taking money out of the state, but it hurts our morale. It's not because Montana is not as good or better than other institutions that they refuse, flatly, to come here, but we just don't have the power of attraction.

Attraction is made up of various magnets. First of these would be a satisfied student body that will, when it travels about, spread good propaganda. They can't spread that goodness out of the kindness of their hearts. It must be sincere. To make it sincere they must be

"Perfume Mixers" Get Challenge

Hostilities broke out on the campus southern front yesterday between the heretofore "good neighbors" (?)—the chemists and the pharmacists, when the chemists issued the following challenge:

"To the Cook-book Chemists (Pharmacists):

"Last spring you perfume mixers squeezed out a victory over us on the softball diamond. Well, fellow, we'd like another crack at you, this time on the basketball court—with the usual stake, of course. If you'd like to discuss this deal with us drop up to the third floor. Glad to have you if you can stand a few he-man odors and if you would like to see how the better half of the Chemistry-Pharmacy building works."

It was signed Stan Klesney, manager, and Dwight Millegan, chairman.

English Grads Number 318 In 20 Years

Three hundred eighteen students have graduated from the English department in the last 20 years, 40 of them with honors, a survey of departmental records reveals.

The survey covers English graduates for a 20-year period, from 1920 to 1940, 89 per cent of whom were women. Forty of the students are teaching in Montana high schools while 151 are now married. Graduates are living in 27 states, the Philippines and Hawaii. Washington has 20 per cent of the out-of-state people, followed by California, New York, Idaho and Illinois.

Of the 35 men graduates, 57 per cent are now living outside the state. Five are teaching in Montana high schools. Of the total group, 38 per cent are residents of other states.

given what they want within reason. After all they are paying customers and as such are entitled to benefit.

Yes, Bourke, we should definitely know and realize the significance of our traditions; however, I am willing to bet that you would get more synchronization if you and all of us demanded or encouraged a different athletic set-up, sell the university to the citizens of the state—which we shouldn't have to do, because it constitutionally belongs to them—secure a larger student body and promote good will unhypercritically.

Exponent Sports Editor Replies to Kizer's Suspension Query

Dear Ken,

I have never had the good fortune of taking a course in "coaching basketball" from Jiggs Dahlberg, Brick Breeden or any other coach for that matter. But at present I am taking a course with a system closely paralleling that of basketball. It is called Military Science and has as its head Colonel Hea. Now the Colonel has taught me that they have Generals, Majors, Captains, Lieutenants, etc., who are the head guys, who make the rules, who see that the men obey them, who see to it that the men know them and who lastly punish all offenders. Now, the General never goes into battle with men he knows are physically unfit for action. They are ejected from the front line and replacements are brought up from the rear.

Now the situation at MSC has much the same set up. The General at the "Collitch" has been Coach Brick Breeden, a stern understanding leader who realized that, when you have a group of kids (as you put it) but who now are full-grown men getting an education through their ability of being above average in their physical well-being rather than mental geniuses, there are bound to be slight misdemeanors in regard to training rules. He was willing to put up with these. But as things got worse the Coach had to have private talks with certain individuals and several talks on training rules were given to the squad as a group. All to no avail in regard to individual. To top it off at Greeley, this remark was heard by our General, unintentionally of course, "Oh, hell he won't do anything about it anyway."

Now what is a Coach to do, let the team run him or he run the team? Well, ours chose the latter course and as a consequence, one of the most drastic disciplinary moves ever undertaken by a coach at MSC, some hard feelings, a distasteful incident and a remodeled Bobcat squad. I could cite examples of miscues made by certain players but it would gain nothing. Instead let's leave it a dead issue at this point.

We are glad to hear that the student body at Missoula takes such an interest in affairs going on at Bozeman. I don't think you'll be in such a stew as you seem to think. If you've been watching the papers, you might have noticed that the new Bobcat squad didn't do so bad and can ably take care of itself in any company. Also Coach Breeden still has a few tricks up his sleeve and he is susceptible to using them. Well, "Humming Bird" tha's the story and maybe by the end of the week you'll be humming a new tune.

Being in the hospital and in bed, I don't wish to make any rash statements, for a man in a prone position is a poor fighter. But I will say that the Grizzlies won't make a four-game sweep of the series this year, and if the Cats don't at least take one game, I'll quit letting this pretty nurse hold my hand, and is she nice!

However, one more thing regarding your inexcusable error and before closing, I pardon you. But I would like to add that in addressing future letters to me, use the first name, Joe, instead of Jack. That is the name my mother christened me with and is the one I use and would like used. Thank you.

Fraternally,

MACDONALD RETURNS

Virginia Macdonald, assistant director of the Clerical Service division, returned to her duties Monday after recovering from a two-weeks' illness.

Idaho Defeats Montana Swimmers

University of Idaho swimmers defeated the Montana team, 41-43, at Moscow yesterday by winning the final race of the meet, the 400-yard relay. Grizzly fencers lost, 6-3. Glen Cameron, Chicago, scored all three points.

Carl Zurmuehlen, Deer Lodge; Jim King, Missoula; Forbes Bottomly and Paul O'Hare, Great Falls, won the 150-yard medley relay for Montana. O'Hare won the 200-yard free style; Bottomly won second in the 50-yard dash; John Snyder, Williston, N. D., took third place in fancy diving, and Bottomly second in the 100-yard dash.

Zurmuehlen won the 150-yard breaststroke; King, the 200-yard breaststroke; O'Hare, the 440-yard swim.

Montana fencers who made the trip were Max Miller, Philadelphia, Pa.; Harold Martin, Libby, and Cameron.

Juniors, Freshmen Defeat Opponents

Juniors and Frosh each won games in the third round of the women's Interclass basketball tournament yesterday. In the first game Junior Gold defeated Frosh Gold with a 10-4 score. Lyonors Grant made six points for the Juniors.

The second game was much faster, with the Frosh Silver defeating the Junior Silver, 24-10. The frosh forward trio, Viola Zimbelman, Virginia Ghirado and Eleanor Cunningham, exhibited a nice job of out-playing their junior guards. Ghirado was high with 12 points.

Club Loan Fund Balance Declared

J. H. Ramskill, professor of forestry, faculty advisor for Forestry club loan fund, announced a balance of $1,816.95 yesterday. On Jan. 1 the amount out on loans was $2,390.73. Since then $740 has been loaned to students and graduates.

The total on the first of the year was $4,800, but the $2,390.73 in loans left a balance of $2,409.27. Cash received since the first amounts to $147.68, giving a total of $2,556.95 in cash available to date. With the $740 loaned since Jan. 1 subtracted, the Forestry club loan fund now has $1,816.95.

Dale Galles Bowls Into Top Position Of Frat League

First- and second-place leaders in the Interfraternity Bowling league changed places with the results of games Saturday. Dale Galles, Phi Delta Theta, leads the keggers with a 15-game average of 187. His 219 average for the last three lines rolled put him ahead of his teammate, Larry Potter, whose average continued its downward trend from 194.4 two weeks ago to 181.9.

The 10 leading bowlers and their averages are: Galles, PDT, 187; Potter, PDT, 181.9; Sandell, SN, 179.5; Turner, PDT, 175.7; Bryan, PDT, 175.4; Hammond, PDT, 173.1; Merrick, SX, 173.6; Wise, SAE, 173.1; Swartz, TX, 171.4, and Dykstra, SX, 171.2.

I'm Right---You're Wrong

BY K. KIZER

Oh, how I hate the Bobcats!

Why, those guys aren't even fit to sweep the floor after the Grizzlies walk on it. You know what I heard? Shhh! I actually heard that those dopes have been working around cows for so long that they have gotten into the habit of regurgitating their meals and chewing their cuds! Honest. 'Course it's just hearsay, but that's what I heard, nevertheless. And on top of that they truly think that they will split the remaining two games with the Montanamen Friday and Saturday nights! Yea! That's no foolin'. I heard that myself. With my own ears I heard that one. Boy, now, that's REALLY stretching a point.

If wishes were horses the Bobcats would ride into Missoula on a cattle-car. They'd have so many cayuses they'd have to wear spurs (not the co-ed kind). It'd be a regular rodeo, seeing those college boys ride into town. Split the games! If that isn't wishful thinking this corner has never seen wishful thinking. There was some old Greek gentleman away back in the ancient times who said that his persecutors could beat him and torture him but that they couldn't make him quit thinking or direct his thinking. Those Bobcats must be Greeks. You sure can't stop them from dreaming.

Burgess, Hall, Jones, DeGroot and Greene are so much better than what's left of the Bozeman team that there really isn't any legitimate use in playing them. In spite of the SAE blow-off, it's what's recorded in the old books that counts, though, so the two games must be played. And played they shall be—child's play.

(Author's Note: I can't think of anything worse than having to swallow these words next Tuesday. Come on, Grizzlies! Come on, Grizzlies!)

Unless Coach Dahlberg has a fast one up his sleeve, the starting lineup will be the one mentioned above. Taylor might play in DeGroot's place and Willie might go to a forward in place of Burgess and Hall might wait for Clawson to warm up, but, by and large, it will be the starting lineup. There's no telling what the 'Cat lineup will consist of. The greater part of the squad will probably be in the cheering section.

President "Little man, what now?" Brazelton of the Managers' club is whooping it up about a date-dance after the game Saturday night over there in the Gold room sponsored by that club. It isn't a selfish money-raising proposition, you understand. All proceeds go into a general fund from which scholarships are granted to senior managers of athletic clubs here on the campus. Every ticket sold is a boost toward better managers, better handling of equipment and better feeling among the players.

Things pointing toward a game or two with Dillon Normal have been sort of shelved in the past week or so. The only place to play a game such as that would be in Billings or Butte and the consensus hasn't been very well thought out on it yet. We'd like to see the Grizzlies in action against a good Montana foe on the local court, but when the money-mongers won't turn out for it, the smartest thing to do is to play the game where the Grizzly's empty sock can jingle again. More about this after the local lads beat the Bozemanites.

This is all for now—and I ain't predicting a split, either.

outpointed Karl Nussbacher in the light-heavy class. Quick to follow his advantage after turning Nussbacher with a terrific blow in the first round, Ness almost punched his opponent out on his feet. Nussbacher wrestled earlier in the evening.

Fighting with a windmill style similar to Hammering Henry Armstrong, Jim McIntosh, Missoula, dethroned Rud Jennings in the middleweight division. McIntosh and Jennings slugged from start to finish, with McIntosh landing oftener.

Waltermire Beats Hambleton

Bob Waltermire, Missoula, won the 118-pound wrestling title in the curtain raiser from Howard Hambleton, Missoula. Waltermire was on top as soon as the pair hit the canvas and maintained his position throughout the entire bout.

In the 128-pound grappling match John Harker, Heron, gave a fine performance in pinning George Santisteban in 4 minutes 25 seconds. Champion Karl Nussbacher, Missoula, followed by pinning Charles Rigg, Havre, in 2 minutes 21 seconds to retain his middleweight title.

Combined Match

In the combined 138- and 148-pound wrestling division, Jim Quinn, Missoula, earned a time advantage over Glen LaPine, Watkins. Quinn, grappling in the 148 class for the first time this year as well as defending his lightweight crown, nearly pinned LaPine three times.

Light-heavy Pete Rigg, Havre, pinned his fraternity brother Ken Smallwood, Columbus, in 3 minutes 15 seconds.

Don Mittelstaedt, Missoula, outpointed Bobby Poston, Missoula, in a free swinging bantamweight bout. Mittelstaedt had Poston on the floor momentarily in the first round, but Poston staged a strong comeback in the second, with honors about even from there on.

Holland Whips Manley

Throwing his smashes a little straighter and much harder, Steve Holland, Miles City, out-slugged Bob Manley, Missoula, to annex the flyweight crown. Holland had Manley in bad shape as the final gong sounded.

Judges were Fay Clark, professor of forestry, and Deane Jones

Pharmacy School Gets Pictures

O. K. Chapman, '30, pharmacy, proprietor of a drug store in Laurel, presented four pictures of one of the oldest drug stores in the United States to Dean C. E. Mollett, professor of pharmacy. The drug store was located at Bethlehem, Pa.

The pictures show the great contrast between the modern all-purpose store of today and the old drug store of yesterday where the business was limited to the sale of drugs, chemicals and prescriptions, Mollett said.
